Clashing kingdoms. Rival rulers. The enemies of Jesus close in while His followers struggle to keep up, leaving Him to carry the burden alone. Threatened by the reality of Jesus' growing influence, religious leaders do the unthinkable—ally with their Roman oppressors. As the seeds of betrayal are planted and opposition to Jesus' message turns violent, He's left with no alternative but demand his followers RISE UP.

"Last year we dipped our toes in the water by releasing a few episodes in theaters. The response was so strong, and Season Four is so big, that we knew we and Fathom had to give viewers the theatrical experience for all eight episodes," said The Chosen's creator and director, Dallas Jenkins.

“We’re excited to make history with The Chosen,” said Ray Nutt, CEO of Fathom Events. “This collaboration has been such an amazing experience! Watching the fans come out in such large numbers to watch the story of Jesus on the big screen has been both informative and heartwarming. We look forward to bringing Season 4 to theaters so those fans can continue to share this story together.”

The Chosen has become a cultural phenomenon with impressive performance across streaming platforms such as Peacock, Netflix, and Amazon Prime where it is one of the platform’s top series of 2023. The Chosen also earned top ratings weekly domestically on The CW.

What began as a pioneering crowd-funded project has now evolved into a global sensation with over 770 million episode views. Due to the efforts of the Come and See Foundation, The Chosen is on pace to be the most translated series in history, as the first three seasons will soon be available in 50 languages with plans to subtitle in more than 600.

Dallas Jenkins is writer, director, and producer. Lionsgate is the show’s global television distributor.
